Sir

With reference to docket No: 3455 dated 12th Instant, giving Cover to an extract (para VIII) from the Proceedings of the Municipal Board held on 20th August 1898, I have the honor to state that there is no doubt that the class of people should be granted quarters as they are a very useful set of people difficult to be had and when once got should be kept.

I see no objection whatever to the resolution and do no reason why if the Municipality look after their premises they should become a nuisance.

I have the honor to be
